PROSPECTUS OF THE EIGHTH VOLUME OF THE

G. BALLEY, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. JOHN 4. WHITTIES, CORRESPONDING EDITOR.
WASHINGTON, D. C.

The National Era is a weekly newspaper, devoted to Literature and Politics.

In Literature, it aims to unite the Beautiful with the True, and to make both immediately subscribent to the practical purposes of everyday life.

In Politics, it advocates the Rights of Man, and the Equality of Rights, and opposes whatever violates or tends to violate them, whether this be Involuntary Personal Servitude, Civil Despotism, Spiritual Absolutism, Class Legislation, the Selfishness of Capital, the Tyranny of Combination, the Oppression of a Majority, or the Exactions of Party.

It holds no fellowship with the Whig and Democratic organizations, believing that the main issues on which they have been arrayed against each other are obsolete or settled, and that they are now chiefly used by the Sectional Interest of Slavery, to impair the love of Liberty natural to the American mind, and to subjugate the American People to its rule. Disclaiming all connection with them, it yet sympathizes with those of their adherents who are honestly seeking through them to advance the honestly seeking through them to advance the substantial interests of the country, although it must believe that they have not chosen the

The Eighth Volume of the Era will commence on the first of January ensuing, and be enlarged by the addition of four columns. We have neglected no means that could promise to make it an agreeable companion for the Household, and an efficient co-adjutor to the enlighted Politician. It has secured able correspondents at home and abroad, and no journal in the country can surpass the Era as it respects contributors to its Literary Department.

The Era publishes condensed reports of the proceedings of Congress, explains movements in that body the causes of which do not always lie upon the surface, and from its position is enabled to keep a constant watch upon the ac-tion of the Federal Government in relation to all questions at issue between Liberty and Washington, December 15, 1853.

INDEPENDENT DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM. ADOPTED AT PITTSBURGH, AUGUST 12, 1852.

Having assembled in National Convention as the delegates of the Free Democracy of the United States, united by a common resolve to maintain right against wrongs, and freedom against slavery; confiding in the intelligence, patriotism, and the discriminating justice of the American people; putting our trust in God for the triumph of our cause, and invoking his guidance in our endeavors to advance it. we now submit to the candid judgment of all men the following declaration of principles and measures:

I. That Governments, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, are instituted among men to secure to all, those inalienable rights of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, with which they were endowed by their Creator, and of which none can be deprived by valid legislation, except for crime.

II. That the true mission of American Democracy is to maintain the liberties of the people, the sovereignty of the States, and the perpetuity of the Union, by the impartial application to public affairs, without sectional discriminations, of the fundamental principles of equal rights, strict ustice, and economical administration.

III. That the Federal Government is one of limited powers, derived solely from the intervention of Kings and Emperors the Constitution; and the grants of power against nations seeking to establish for therein ought to be strictly construed by themselves republican or constitutional all the departments and agents of the Gov- Governments. ernment, and it is inexpedient and dangerous to exercise doubtful constitutional

IV. That the Constitution of the United States, ordained to form a more perfect ed nations. union, to establish justice, and secure the blessings of liberty, expressly denies to the General Government all power to de- titled to all privileges and immunities of prive any person of life, liberty, or prop- citizens of the several States," the pracerty, without due process of law; and, tice of imprisoning colored seamen of therefore, the Government, having no more other States, while the vessels to which power to make a slave than to make a they belong lie in port, and refusing to king, and no more power to establish sla- exercise the right to bring such cases bevery than to establish monarchy, should at fore the Supreme Court of the United once proceed to relieve itself from all re- States, to test the legality of such prosponsibility for the existence of slavery ceedings, is a flagrant violation of the wherever it possesses constitutional power to legislate for its extinction.

V. That, to the persevering and importunate demands of the Slave Power for more slave States, new slave Territories, visions of the Constitution faithfully oband the nationalization of Slavery, our distinct and final answer is-no more slave States, no slave Territory, no nationalized Slavery, and no national legislation for the extradition of slaves.

VI. That Slavery is a sin against God and a crime against man, which no human sort to decisive arbitration. enactment nor usage can make right; and that Christianity, humanity, and patriotism, alike demand its abolition.

VII. That the fugitive Slave Act of 1850 is repugnant to the Constitution, to the principles of the common law, to the spirit of Christianity, and to the senti-ments of the civilized world. We therefore deny its binding force upon the American People, and demand its immediate and total repeal. VIII. That the doctrine that any human law is a finality, and not subject to modification or repeal, is not in accordance with the creed of the founders of our Government, and is dangerous to the liberties of the people.

IX. That the acts of Congress knows as the Compromise Measures of 1850, by making the admission of a sovereign State contingent upon the adoption of other measures demanded by the special interest of Slavery; by their omission to guaranty freedom in free Territories; by their attempt to impose unconstitutional limitations on the power of Congress and the people to admit new States; by their provisions for the assumption of five millions of the State debt of Texas, and for the payment of five millions more, and the cession of a large territory to the same State under menace, as an inducement to the relinquishment of a groundless claim. and by their invasion of the sovereignty of the States and the liberties of the people, through the enactment of an unjust, oppressive, and unconstitutional Fugitive Slave Law, are proved to be inconsistent with all the principles and maxims of Democracy, and wholly inadequate to the settlement of the questions of which they are claimed to be an adjustment.

the Slavery question can be looked for, except in the practical recognition of the truth that Slavery is sectional, and Freedom national; by the total separation of the General Government from Slavery, and the exercise of its legitimate and constitutional influence on the side of Freedom; and by leaving to the States the whole fugitives from service.

XI. That all men have a natural right to a portion of the soil; and that, as the use of the soil is indispensable to life, the right of all men to the soil is as sacred as their right to life itself.

XII. That the public lands of the United States belong to the people, and should not be sold to individuals nor granted to corporations, but should be held as a sacred trust for the benefit of the people, and should be granted in limited quantities, free of cost, to landless settlers. . XIII. That a due regard for the Federal Constitution, and sound administrative policy, demand that the funds of the General Government be kept separate from banking institutions; that inland and ocean postage should be reduced to the lowest possible point; that no more revenue should be raised than is required to defray the strictly necessary expenses of the public service, and to pay off the public debt; and that the power and patronage of the Government should be diminished by the abolition of all unnecessary offices, salaries, and privileges, and by the election by the people of all civil officers in the service of the United States, so far as may be consistent with the prompt and efficient transaction of the public business.

XIV. That river and harbor improvements, when necessary to the safety and convenience of commerce with foreign nations or among the several States, are objects of national concern, and it is the duty of Congress, in the exercise of its constitutional powers, to provide for the

XV. That emigrants and exiles from the Old World should find a cordial welcome to homes of comfort and fields of enterprise in the New; and every attempt to abridge their privilege of becoming citizens and owners of the soil among us ought to be resisted with inflexible deter-

XVI. That every nation has a clear right to alter or change its own Government, and to administer its own concerns in such manner as may best secure the rights and promote the happiness of the people, and foreign interference with that right is a dangerous violation of the law of nations, against which all independent Governments should protest, and endeavor by all proper means to prevent; and especially is it the duty of the Ameri-can Government, representing the chief Republic of the world, to protest against, and by all proper means to prevent,

XVII. That the independence of Hayti ought to be recognised by our Government, and our commercial relations with it placed on the footing of the most favor-

XVIII. That as, by the Constitution, "the citizens of each State shall be en-Constitution, and an invasion of the rights of the citizens of otther States, utterly inconsistent with the professions made by the slaveholders, that they wish the pro-served by every State in the Union. XIX. That we recommend the intro duction into all treaties, hereafter to be negotiated between the United States and foreign nations, of some provision for the ainicable settlement of difficulties by a re-

XX. That the Free Democratic party is not organized to aid either the Whig or Democratic wing of the great Slave Compromise party of the nation, but to defeat them both; and that repudiating and renouncing both, as hopelessly corrupt, and utterly unworthy of confidence, the purpose of the Free Democracy is to take possession of the Federal Government, and administer it for the better protection of the rights and interests of the whole

XXI. That we inscribe on our banner. FREE SOIL, FREE SPEECH, FREE LABOR, and FREE MEN, and under it will fight on and fight ever, until a triumphant victory shall reward our exertions.

XXII. That upon this Platform the Convention presents to the American People, as a candidate for the office of President of the United States, JOHN P. HALE, of New Hampshire, and as a candidate for the office of Vice President of the United States, George W. Julian, of Indiana, and earnestly commends them to the support of all freemen and parties.

A New and Improved Volume. OODWORTH'S YOUTH'S CABINET enter W upon the Ninh Year of its publication, with the January Number. This Magazine has acquired the name of the "Young People's Favorite." It has become a household word. Its articles comprise an almost endless variety; all, whether grave or humorous, adapted to instruct as well as entertain, and the FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH,

FRANCIS C. WOODWORTH,
Author of "Uncle Frank's Home Stories," "Theodore Thinker's Tales," "Stories about Animals," &c, is still the Editor. The January number contains a choice variety of articles, including some of the best Puzzles over published. For engravings, we have Portraits of Washington Irving, Daniel Webster ou his Farm, and a host of others; among which is our Frontispiece, executed at great expense, in the highest style of the art. The picture is a perfect gemitself worth the price of the entire volume.

THE RAMBLES IN THE OLD WORLD,

THE RAMBLES IN THE OLD WORLD, which have aided materially in awelling our subscription list since the Editor's return from abroad, will be continued through the year 1854. Wootwork's Youth's Cabinet will be found to be (as it has been called by a London publisher) decidedly Richest Dollar Magazine in the World! It embraces nearly 600 pages, forming two beautiful volumes, illustrated with upwards of 75 fine engravings. Now is the time to subscribe. Send and get the January number, if you are unacquainted with the work, and judge for yourself. We will send this number to any address, when required as a specimen, for six cents, or two postage stamps.

Information for Married or Single Ladies. A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS - The most pure, A LABASTER STARCH GLOSS—The most pure, glossy, and finest, snow-white starch, in the world. The cost of this starch is about the same as common starch, the entire cost not exceeding five cents per quart, and is made just as quick. It preserves the clothes and gives them a glossy and enamelled appearance, that no other starch can do. This is an entirely new discovery, and the first time ever offered to the public. I ask a fee of only one dime for imparting the knowledge how to make this starch, and I expect to make more out of it at that low price than I could by selling it to a few of the rich for five dollars, which has been done. Now, ladies and gentlemen, send on your dimes, and get this information, which some of you would not be without for fifty times its cost. Copy the address, and send for the information when you have leisure. Better pay postage both ways, by sending a stamp along with the dime. Address, post paid,
